Our meeting for Tuesday, May 26, 2015 is cancelled!

Thanks to Carl Dowden for taking notes for this week's newsletter!

Members we missed today and hope to see in two weeks: Karen Cadorette, Barry Ramage, Susan Simon, Hon. Jonah Triebwasser and David Wright. Attendance with make-ups: 94%. Happy dollars: $40.00. Rob Latimer won the 50/50 and donated it to The Rotary Foundation (thank you Rob!).

Congratulations to Rev. Fred Cartier and Rosalie on the birth of their grandson Benjamin Cartier. Their son David and his wife are the proud parents.

Our Interact Club had a successful food drive in school and collected 10 boxes of food for the Red Hook Methodist Church food pantry. Lois Chenkus of the food pantry was very appreciative to receive the donation.

Club Service report: A Red Hook Rotary Club road sign will be installed soon near Red Hook Auto Service on Route 199 east of the village. The road sign that was by Hardscrabble Plaza will be reinstalled as well. Carl and Bud will be in charge of installing these road signs.

Plans for the Installation of Club officers at the end of June are progressing.

Youth Exchange: Garn visited us this morning. She is doing well. Keep your fingers crossed because we think we have the first host family for our next student arriving in August.

There is no club meeting next Tuesday, May 26 because Dan from Bread and Bottle is not available. Happy Memorial Day...remember those who served in our military, especially those who gave their lives.

Join our Relay for Life walking team at the Dutchess County Fairgrounds, Saturday to Sunday, May 30 and 31. We will be led by our president Chris Chale.
