District 7210 Governor Visit to Region 3 via Zoom Jonah “reporting from the internet”

In attendance from Red Hook were Rev. Fred Cartier, Christine Chale, Esq., Rebecca Kent, Gwen McCann, Judge Jonah Triebwasser and David Wright. There were 25 total attendees. Since this was not a regular club meeting, I gave our members make up status for missed meetings in the past or future. (thank you Jonah!)

- Mike stressed that this year's theme, Serve to Change Lives, should also be read in reverse; that Rotary has to Change to Serve Lives. We have to do things differently and be flexible in this era of Zoom and pandemic.
- Mike wants to visit the individual clubs during Foundation fundraisers or club service projects.
- District Service Days and RI Rotary Days of Service will be combined into three service seasons:
 - Fall - coat drive
 - Winter - feeding the hungry - food drives - food banks
 - Spring - Earth Day environmental projects
- There will be a Service Symposium in April and a Foundation Recognition event on a date yet to be determined. (He noted that the district and clubs raised $217,000.00 last year for the Foundation).
- District Goals:
 - 1) every club to participate in each service season
 - 2) Membership - attract and engagement (recruit new members and keep them by getting them involved)
 - 3) EREY $25 minimum/member; each club and average of $144/member
- Other news:
 - YEX (short and long term) will be back Summer of 2022
 - RYLA - will be in person (they hope!)
 - Interact and Rotaract - reactivate those clubs

Mike is looking for volunteers for the various district committees. Information will be sent to Jen

- Important dates: Pre-Pets 12/1/2022 and PETS 3/24 to 26/2022 Information will be sent to president-elect
