Today we remember those who lost their lives in the 9/11 attack, the first responders, the first responders/rescue/recovery workers who have died since 9/11 and the families of all involved.

Our speaker today was club member Rev. Michael Shafer. Michael's talk was based around "this time of the year". He spoke about "character...character virtues as opposed to resume virtues". He referred to and read some passages from David Brooks' book "The Road to Character". Michael suggested we all need to build and improve our character virtues. As Rotarians we inherently have good character virtues as we live by our 4 Way Test and Service Above Self motto. Thank you Michael for your inspiring words.
