Citizens of the Year
Event

Honoring
Dawn Jardine & Amy Smith

Well known for their work at the Red Hook Library and in the community

Citizen of the Year – Carl updated us on COTY. Location will be the Red Hook Community Center on October 22nd. We are still getting bids for catering. Jennifer offered to create a save the date posting for social media. We discussed a possible theme style dinner using biodegradable plates and flatware. Table decorations will be keeping with Rotary's area of focus. Jennifer is the chair for silent auction items. Rebecca has some of the past décor and will make the silent auction tables look inviting.

Backpacks full of school supplies are being distributed one more Sunday and we determined that any not picked up we may take to the Library or the school for others. Linda already delivered some of the extra supplies she had on hand.

Ariadne had mentioned special calculators are being required for some students. Emily shared that the Red Hook Teachers Foundation is also helping with some of these supplies. Also, every student who needs a laptop/notebook/calculator is receiving them through the school. It was also mentioned that there is a shortage of tutors.

Hardscrabble is this coming Saturday and Friday is a community welcome event. Rotary is not having a table this year. We are brainstorming ideas for next year. The organizers are asking for interactive activities from those participating at Hardscrabble (school of funny walks, face painting, sidewalk chalk art, bobbing for apples are some ideas.)

Coat Drive – We will be collecting in October through the banks, State Farm and Tivoli library. Distribution is scheduled 11/6 at the UMC Food Pantry.

Sept 27th we will be meeting at Taste Budds and recording Radio Rotary for Citizen of the Year. And maybe Coat Drive

Jennifer mentioned there is an increase in food pantry clients and saw that some are our Bard students. Bard also has a food pantry on campus. Both food pantries are keeping open communication to serve our community at large. She also asked for peanut butter and toilet paper donations from the members. Those seem to be difficult to get. Bard is doing a drive for those items also.

Youth Exchange News! – Rotary Youth Exchange will be opening applications for outbound students for 2023 – 2024 in October. We are also looking for host families for incoming students. Please contact Christine Chale for details at yexchale@rodenhausenchale.com

Next meeting, Tuesday, September 20, 2022, 8-9am on Zoom

Citizen of the Year Dinner Honoring Red Hook Library's Own Dawn Jardine and Amy Smith - Saturday, October 22 – see details above!

Nick Ascienzo and his family foundation will host a no cost market on Friday, November 11th at the Red Hook Community Center. We will need Rotarian volunteers to pack bags and distribute food bags to the needy. Details to come.

Be sure to check the speaker schedule, below, so that you know when you are speaker host!

Rotary

RadioRotary is an historic venture made possible by the Rotary clubs of the Hudson Valley.

Its weekly goal is to share the service and humanitarian efforts of Rotarians and others who share ways to improve our quality of life.

In lively 30 minute interviews, Rotary's professional radio hosts, Rotarians Sarah O'Connell Claitor and Jonah Triebwasser, talk to people who work at the grassroots level on programs that address such important Rotary issues as poverty, illiteracy, hunger disease, and the environment.

Co-hosts Jonah Triebwasser
and Sarah O'Connell Claitor
(bios on www.radiorotary.org)

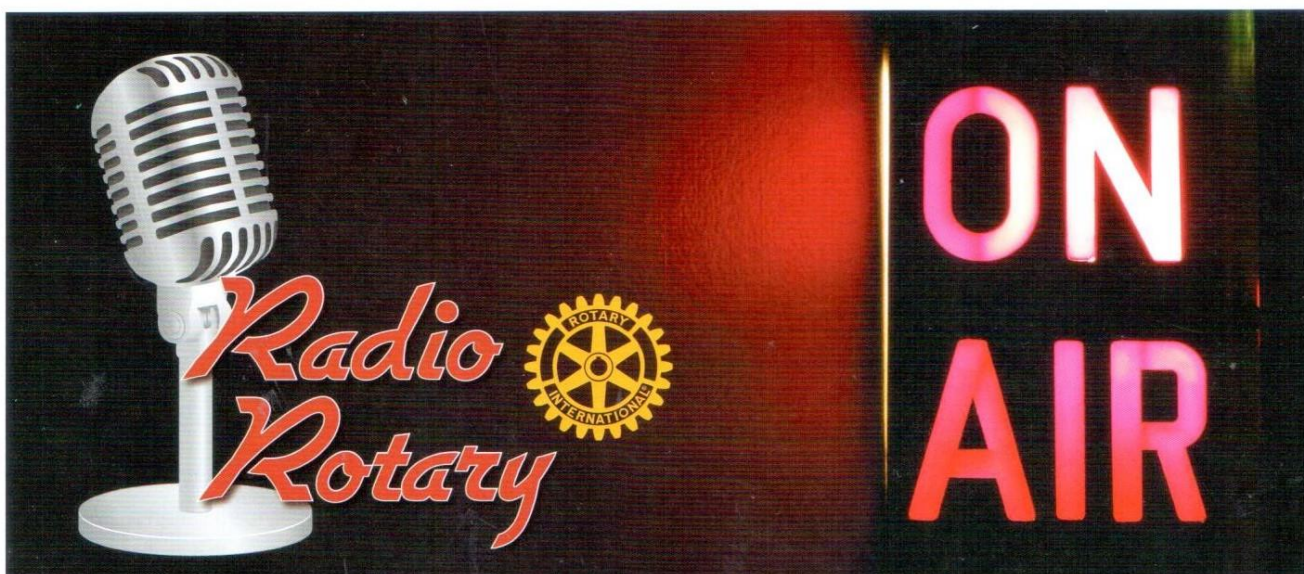

Guests' stories about their humanitarian work are uplifting, showing how caring people strive to do good in the world.

Woven throughout the program are the passion and spirit of Rotary, whose optimism is reflected in the belief that our public-spirited endeavors will build goodwill and better friendships in our community, our nation, and our world, thus contributing to peace and understanding.

RadioRotary is one important way for the public to gather information helpful to their daily lives. We also hope that the program will encourage others to consider joining Rotary's efforts to make our world a better place.

Rotary

Radio Rotary is an independent nonprofit organization created by Rotarians from the Hudson Valley and supported by many Rotary clubs as well as by commercial sponsors. Now in its 14th year, Radio Rotary has won two New York State Broadcasting Awards for its weekly half-hour radio program that promotes the goals of Rotary International and The Rotary Foundation: "Service above Self" and "Doing Good in the World."

Guests interviewed by seasoned co-hosts, Sarah O'Connell Claitor and Jonah Triebwasser, typically work for programs that address such issues as poverty, education, health, the environment, addiction, and housing. Programs range from covering organizations and events in the Hudson Valley, including some sponsored by Rotary clubs, to the activities of national and international organizations. Woven throughout is the spirit of Rotary, the belief that humanitarian endeavors that build goodwill and better friendships in our community, nation, and world contribute to peace and understanding.
