- Citizen of the Year – Carl confirmed that the virtual event will take place on Saturday, October 30th at 5pm, we will order a banner and have a zoom rehearsal @ RH Village court
- District Meeting plan – Greg Bolner, Assistant District Governor wants to do a district group meeting in the evening, date to be announced
- Backpack School Supplies: 4 HS Bags & 6 K-2 back packs still available, Linda will contact RHHS guidance office & K-2 principal regarding any needs for back packs & supplies

Jonah gave us a brief history of our local newspapers, leading us into his introduction of today's guest speaker, Emily Sachar-Publisher & Editor of "The Red Hook Daily Catch" She first informed us that her Grandfather was a Rotarian 😊 Emily spoke of her (very accomplished) background prior to establishing the Red Hook Daily Catch and the goal for her publication – to be a legitimate and high quality newspaper. She is striving to get at least one "Fresh Story" published daily in the newsletter format. When The Red Hook Daily Catch first started there were a little more than 100 readers – as of 9/21 there are over 1,380 subscribers. Red Hook is no longer a "news desert." We then had a discussion about how the paper has developed and what we would like to see developed in the future. The Red Hook Daily Catch will always be a non-partisan newspaper and Emily is actively training her staff (including 2 young journalists in training) how to edit the words or handle details that can be interpreted as partisan.
