Thirsty Thursday Returns

Meeting last week at Porchlight Brewing, Thirsty Thursdays are back on this year to support Brewfest. This week we meet at Track 7 Brewing in Natomas, 826 Professor Lane #100 (not Curtis Park). Enjoy the company, enjoy the beer.

Meeting 44 Notes - Rookies Revenge

Rookies run amok. President Haney rings in his 44th meeting at Greer Elementary School. Robert Haney leads our salute to the flag. The fines start early with John Price fined for bad mentoring and President-for-the-day Robert fined himself. Mike Garcia recites the 4 way test backwards. The Flamingo song was our song today. Kathy Berger gave our Thought of the day discussing Fitzzy the flamingo. But alas, $10 more fine for John for more bad mentoring. President Robert rang the Bell honoring John Price for his trip to NYC, giving $100 for Polio Plus. John gave $100 for the PWR foundation. Tom Engwer announced the success of the 1st Thirsty Thursday at Porchlight Brewing. The next TT is 6/15 at Track 7 in Natomas. Joanie Mather reminds us of the Demotion party for President John at the home of Dominic Porrino Sat., 6/24 at 5:30 PM. Mike Bede announces the last Greer/Encina food distribution on June 21st at Greer 9:30 AM. Eagle Golf on Tuesdays every Tuesday 5:15 PM at Hagen oaks is announced by Bea. Young professional happy hour will be 6/20 location TBD. Beth Leonard, Gary Pevey and Bea Maurer played the game today, PWR Jeopardy. Beth and Gary were each fined $10 but Bea won flamingo golf balls. Our speaker was Kevin Smedes emphasizing that we new members would love more interaction with each current member at our meeting. The first Pink Flamingo Award goes to Russ Fujii. More fines to the absent rookies, Bonnie and Tim and another $10 for President John. Don Rodes is happy to announce giving the Guy Hellman scholarship and 5 other scholarships to West Campus students. He gave $200 to GRC. Maria O'Neil, In absentia, gave Happy bucks for the great service at she received from USA Auto Glass. Jeff Milde is happy his son graduated HS and achieved Eagle Scout, giving $100. $10 each from happy Rotarians Gary Pevey going to Reno to see Doobie Bros, Tom Engwer for thirsty Thursday, Beth Leonard for great meeting, Lori Curry for letting us handle the mic and Robert Haney 10 for getting his granddaughter. Chris Taylor pulled the ticket and won the spin getting Glass wipes.
