Fireside Chats

Fireside chats are in full swing. Please attend and don't forget to RSVP to your gracious host. Please fill out the questionnaires and bring to your meeting. Your feed back to the club of your thoughts on our club business is wanted so we can plan out the direction the club wants to go in the future. Make your voice heard! For questions please contact PE John Price. Let's see everyone there.

Prospective New Member Profile

After spending 24 years hearing about Point West Rotary from his Father Larry Challis, Nate Challis made the decision to join the Downtown Club. But he was 20 years too young ... so he submitted his application for Point West instead! Nate is beyond excited to be joining Point West Rotary. His interests include everything from Scouting, Ultra-Distance Running, Theatre & Music. Point West Rotary members contributed well over 100 hours of volunteer work to his Eagle Scout Project in 2013 demonstrating service above self inspiring the main reasons Nate wants to join Point West Rotary.

Nate graduated from UC Davis in 2020 with a Degree in Communication Studies, and now works full time as a Loan Officer with his father. Nate has big plans for the future.
