Meeting Recap for April 9, 2021

Chris Taylor started the meeting off stating how proud he was to be a member of PWR & reminding us that we are making a difference in the lives a lot of neglected people.

Pres. Russ announced there is a Rotarian from Redding whose 2 daughters will be attending Sac State that is looking for a safe place for them to rent. If anyone knows of anywhere let Russ know.

WEAVE CEO Beth Hassett & Jordyn Pruitt, also from WEAVE spoke in support of the 100K fundraiser hike that Walter Helm & Roger Gilleland will begin on 6/12. The focus is on WEAVE's Anti-Sex trafficking program. They work mostly as advocates to victims & help to educate on how to identify victims.

Tom Cicchini reminded us of our golf tournament at El Macero on May 17, $100/person. Get your foursomes together!

Greg Garcia reminded us that he still needs volunteers for Sac Food Bank, April 16, 1-4pm. Contact him to volunteer.

Jessie Nix shared that the PWRC Foundation has donated over $85,000 this year to local & global charities.

Ted Gaines from the CA Board of Equalization spoke about being a taxpayer advocate to 30 CA counties to help resolve constituents tax problems & to ensure uniformity of tax practices.

New Member Ross Rushton

"In 2015, Ross Rushton and his wife, Kellie, sold their San Francisco Bay Area home, and moved to Arden Park where they currently live with their two children, Rylan (7), and Kendall (2). Ross spent 4 years in the United States Marine Corps before beginning a ten year stint in the pharmaceutical sales industry.

But, looking for a new start, Ross earned his M.B.A. from Pepperdine University, and began a rewarding career as a mortgage consultant in the summer of 2017.

In his free time, Ross enjoys running, cycling, golfing, and watching the six-time Super Bowl Champion Pittsburgh Steelers.

He is also a Past President of the Active 20-30 Club in Sacramento—a 97 yr. old volunteer service organization that raises money and organizes benevolent events for underserved youth in Sacramento County."
