Meeting Recap for May 14, 2021

Jim Hare shared his delight in us being able to meet in-person after 14 long months during his heart felt invocation.

Tom Engwer announced this term's Quiet Rotarian of the Year, Chris Taylor. Chris's work as head of the GRC as well as all his behind the scenes help with Encina & Greer earned him this recognition. Congrats Chris!

Beth Schatz introduced & presented a check to Hasani Johnson, Development Director at Improve Your Tomorrow. Their mission is "Increase the number of young men of color who attend & graduate from College".

Russ thanked, on behalf of Dan Hall, the 35 volunteers who helped at the American River Parkway clean-up day.

Mark Albrecht reiterated that May is Foundation month. You can contribute via Venmo, check or credit card. He also announced this year's candidates for Foundation Trustee. See top of middle column for details.

Tom Cicchini reminded us about our golf tournament coming up May 17th at El Macero Country Club. We have 108 golfers, lots of good food with hopes of raising $10,000.

Our speaker, Dr. Ron Chambers spoke to us about Dignity Health's program of providing medical care for human trafficking victims & training future Doctor's how to recognize & treat victims.
