Meeting Recap for May 7, 2021

Lyndsay Burch read the poem by Kipling titled IF...capturing what we strive for in Rotary and our everyday lives.

Dan Hall reminded us of the American River Parkway clean-up Sat., May 8.

PWRC Foundation Prez, Mark Albrecht reminded us, May is foundation month. We have seen our corpus increase by $295,000 this term. We've had $72,000 in donations from PW members, and we've spent $130,000 in community giving this term. Our Foundation Trustees dug deep this year and MaryLyn will have $140,000 in benevolent giving for her term. The wonders of having our own Foundation. Please remember to give.

Mike Cendro rang the bell for $200 as he is grateful his wife Karen survived her recent spleen removal... Also celebrating their son Kevin's recent graduation from Regis University.

John Price shared an upcoming training hike with Walter & Roger to Horsetail Fall, a moderate 3-4 hike on Sat. May 15 for $50, includes lunch. This is to help prepare them for their June 12 100k walk to help with the WERAVE sex trafficking efforts. Please contact him if you are interested.

Rich Price rang the bell to celebrate he & Nancy's recent honor into the Sacto. Assoc. of Realtors Masters Presidents Club. Congratulations.

Meeting Recap Continues

Samantha reminded us that we still have 10 spots left at next week's (May 14) first in-person meeting in 14 months. We will also be zooming for those who cannot attend in person. $25/person.

Russ thanked Larry Challis & his son's Connor & Nate for making racing in the District's pinewood derby. Thank you also to John Hare for the decals used on the car, we looked pretty spiffy. Winners will be announced at the upcoming District Conference.
