BRIAN MOORE ROTARY GARDEN

The garden is planted with winter vegetables, growth has begun, and irrigation is in place!

A HUGE thank you to everyone that came out to plant and help install the drip irrigation. You all did an awesome job! PWR members truly are the BEST! Also, another HUGE thank you to the Interact students who came and did so much!

Please email or text (916-524-4328) Mary Lyn Kagan if you can volunteer for the continued maintenance on this project. The harvested vegetables will be donated to the River City Food Bank.

Because no one should be hungry

PROSPECTIVE NEW MEMBER

You may have noticed a visitor to our club the past few meeting and she is applying for membership. Charissa Gorre is sponsored by Randy Burton and Dominic Porrino. Charissa has been working at the Sacramento Regional Public Safety Training Center for many years currently as Public Safety Coordinator/Administration of Justice Professor and Department Chair at American River College. Prior to her academic career, she worked 17 years and is now retired Sargent from Sacramento Police Dept. She has multiple interests including art appreciation and comparative literature.

Meeting 13 Recap

We travel to Fairytale Town in Land Park for today's meeting. Tom Engwer leads the pledge. Our song is Old MacDonald. Our thought for the day was provided via Zoom by Lyndsay Burch from the parking lot at DPCC. New Member, Kevin Smedes was inducted into PWR by Gary Pevey. Bell ringers were Tim Maliepaard and Paul Adams. Markus Egure is presented with a big check so he can touch up and seal the 20x120 ft mural he painted on the front wall of Encina High School. The game of "fact or Fiction" was won by Christine Cahill-Reams who spun the wheel for naught (but no fine).

Samantha Hoshida introduced our speaker, Kevin Smith-Fagan, Executive Director for Fairytale Town who presented current programs and future plans for new attractions at Fairytale Town. Bob Berger spun the opportunity wheel and won, "Rub-A Dub Dub."
