Partners in Leadership

The 10th annual Partners in Leadership Conference is on for next week, Wed., November 9 at Sacramento State University. Sandy Thompson and Larry Challis will run this the conference. Sandy may still need help with being a mentor for the day. If you are able to help, please contact Sandy. This is a very rewarding experience for all of the participants. This program makes a huge impact on the participating students as well as the mentors.

Ride to End Polio

The annual Ride to End Polio sponsored by the Rotary Fellowship Cycling to Serve is November 19 in Tucson AZ. You can participate and help Rotarian Joe Scheimer raise funds as he rides in this event by going to <https://raise.rotary.org/Joe-Scheimer/challenge1> by November 20. For information on the Ride to End Polio, go to <https://polioride.org/>. Together we can make the difference to complete our mission.

Meeting 17 Recap

We meet this week at Leatherby's Family Creamery, inside this time. The pledge was led by Rich Price. Mary Lyn Kagan recited the 4 Way Test with her eyes closed. Gary Pevey led us in Grand Old Flag. Our thought for the day was provided by the Reverend, Bruce Levering on the fly. Bell Ringers were Ann Osborne and Lee Holmes. Our special guest was Frankie Porrino with her father, Dominic who talk about Type 1 Diabetes and Frankie's dealings with that disease.

New member Charissa Gorre is inducted by sponsors Randy Burton and Beth Leonard. Robert Haney announced the PWR pop up store for PWR Spirit ware is available though 11/6. Tom Harvey introduced David Leatherby, co-owner of Leatherby's with his family, who spoke to us about his journey to have a wonderful ice cream shop and his philosophy of work and life. Dave also go to spin the wheel, winning an original mug from the first Brewfest. Frankie Porrino spun the wheel as well winning a bottle of wine which Dominic will enjoy but she gets a Leatherby's gift certificate as well.
