Point West Rotary Celebrates the 38th Demotion Party

We all gathered at the home of Dominic Porrino to celebrate the end of President John's term and the end of The Price is Right. This was a wonderful party with great libations, food and friendly conversation. John got smoke by his wife, Janice in the Game Show Trivia Game but you know The Wife is Right. She got too spin the wheel and landed on "Fine paid by President John" more than once. We can collect next term. Thanks to everyone that made this epic party go!
