Julee Rachels

Heartisans Marketplace

Working with women in need in programs across our city over the years Julee Rachels noticed something.

"I could take them and get them a job that day that was entry level, which is a great job. There is a definite need for those," she said. "But it's not going to support a family, a mom with kids. It's not going to do it. So what I saw was that we needed something that would give them the job training they needed so that they could actually move into a career that would pay the bills."

And so Heartisans Marketplace was born.

Heartisans is a store and job training program that provides services to women referred from organizations across the city. In its downtown Longview home for just more than a year, Heartisans is entirely volunteer staffed and has seen many success stories, Rachels said.

Job trainees go through an extensive interview before they are allowed into the program and must be referred by another nonprofit agency. They must at least have a GED and must pass a drug test, which can be administered at random. Using the Job Ready Work Keys testing system, applicants are screened to determine if they're qualified to work at one of more than 60 participating companies in Longview. Many are trained right at Heartisans, where their wares also are sold.

Heartisans is at 112 W. Methvin St. Learn more at heartisansmarketplace.com

More than 150 celebrate Paris United's 100th anniversary

PARIS – More than 150 Rotarians, guests and dignitaries gathered Feb. 4 at the Paris Golf and Country Club to celebrate a significant milestone for Rotary in District 5830: Paris United Way Rotary Club's 100th anniversary of providing Service Above Self to the Paris community, our country and the world. It is the oldest club in District 5830.

The country club's foyer was decorated with pictures and memorabilia from years past, as well as a plaque listing 100 presidents of the club. A handmade quilt showing squares from each club during the District Governorship of Jo Ann Parkman was also prominently displayed.

Keynote speaker Rotary International President Elect John Germ told the crowd: "We are in the People business." He then took each letter and expounded on it.

Four members of the Rotary Club of Longview took part in the celebration: Carroll Greenwaldt, Mary Greenwaldt, Shirley Griffin and James Roberts.

Don't forget to nominate for Citizen of the Year

Each year, our club honors a person who has made a lasting contribution to Longview and the surrounding area. We can do that only with your help.

Your input and recommendations are important. Please take the time to think about deserving nominees, complete the form you received recently via email and bring it with you to our next meeting to deliver it to Gai Bennett. You may also email your nominations to Gai at gnbnt@aol.com until the deadline early next month.

The award will be presented May 3, when our meeting will be converted to an award banquet for this year's honoree.

Thank you in advance for your thoughtful consideration and efforts to help us continue our tradition of honoring those who have made our community a better place.

Beware of fake Rotary 'End Polio' email scam

An email purporting to be from Rotary Foundation Trustee Chair Ray Klinginsmith is targeting Rotary members. The email falsely claims that members can become End Polio Now ambassadors if they email club information to a Gmail address within 48 hours. The fraudulent email has the subject line "BECOME AN END POLIO AMBASSADOR."

This is a scam. Rotary staff is working to resolve the issue.

Avoid being the victim of such scams by deleting – without opening – any email that appears suspicious.

Next week's program

RYLA Report – The Rotary Youth Leadership Award program participants who were sponsored by our club will join us to share tales of their experience at RYLA camp and discuss what they learned. This is always a fun and uplifting program.

For a look at more upcoming programs, visit rotarylongview.org and find the "Speakers" section.
