

Last week's meeting

Larry Jobe

Rockers, Riders & Ribs

Rockers, Riders & Ribs, a new family oriented festival coming to Longview, should draw thousands to downtown this fall.

Larry Jobe, advertising director of the Longview News-Journal, which is presenting the festival, told members and guests last week the event will feature activities East Texans love — barbecue, music and motorcycles — and help fill a void left by cancelation of AlleyFest.

The inaugural Rockers, Riders and Ribs is set for Oct. 22.

The day will kick off with a motorcycle ride from Longview to Bear Creek Smokehouse in Harrison County. Bikers will gather in Longview that morning and ride to Bear Creek, where they will be treated to a special picnic in the pasture.

After the ride, bikers will head back to Longview, and the "Thunder in the View" parade of riders will serve as a kickoff to the festival, which starts about 1 p.m. in downtown Longview.

In addition to children's activities and motorcycle events, the festival will feature a lineup both of regional and major national performers: Ally Venable Band, Wes Jeans, Louisiana Swamp Donky, Big Smo, Shooter Jennings, The Georgia Satellites and headliner Marshall Tucker Band.

Rockers, Riders & Ribs will feature a variety of food and other vendors, and a highlight will be a barbecue contest featuring officials from East Texas municipalities squaring off against each other. A kids zone will feature bounce houses, clowns and games for children. All events will be in downtown, primarily along Methvin and Green streets, which will be closed for the event.
