

Last week's meeting

Dale Lunsford LeTourneau University

In the 70 years that LeTourneau University has been in existence, President Dale Lunsford said, a lot has changed.

“One change is that LeTourneau has become a national university,” he told Rotarians and guests May 24. “It’s because of our unique place, our unique mission in Christian higher education, but also in the strong technical, workforce ready kinds of programs.”

But while students attending the university’s main campuses in Longview and those elsewhere come from coast to coast, most today are from Texas. Getting there, he said, was an important step for LeTourneau.

“That’s step one,” he said. “Step two is to get a lot more students from East Texas, and we’re working on that.”

Though LeTourneau is best known for programs like engineering and aviation, it offers more than 90 academic majors from business and education to nursing and psychology.

“And we’re continuing to expand our programs,” Lunsford said, noting the remotely piloted aircraft program that was launched this academic year. “This is the technology that’s going to change the aviation industry. So this year we launched a program to prepare our young people for those careers.”

Flag Day flag duty next week

Next Tuesday, June 14, is Flag Day, the day that commemorates adoption of the United States flag in 1777 by the Second Continental Congress.

That means our club will be beautifying Longview with Old Glory next week to help our city celebrate the birthday of the stars and stripes.

Flag Chairman Charles Risinger today is distributing route sheets to flag team captains in preparation for the holiday. According to his schedule, flags will go out next Monday, June 13, when the barn will be open from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. They will be in place next Tuesday, Flag Day, and be returned to the barn Wednesday, June 15, when the facility again will be open from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Please arrange your schedules to be able to do your part in this project, which is so important both to our club and our city.

If you have questions or needs, please see Charles or your team captain.
