Former First Lady Laura Bush to speak at Rotary convention

Former First Lady of the United States Laura Bush, an advocate for literacy, education, and women's rights, will speak at the 2018 Rotary Convention in Toronto this June.

For decades Mrs. Bush has fought for key national and global issues including launching groundbreaking education and healthcare programs in the U.S. and abroad. She founded both the Texas Book Festival and the National Book Festival in Washington D.C. As chair of the Women's Initiative at the George W. Bush Institute, Mrs. Bush continues her work on global healthcare innovations, empowering women in emerging democracies, education reform, and supporting men and women who have served in the U.S. military.

"Lead Through Innovation:
How To Win In An Era of Fierce Competition & Rapid Change"

Achieving and maintaining performance excellence in your business isn't easy or comfortable. It's Hard!

So why do some companies and teams make it look so easy while others struggle to separate from the pack?

Drawing from over 20 years of commercializing cutting edge start-ups and lessons learned from perennial winning teams, Rome teaches the four dominant qualities of Innovative Leaders and why they consistently outperform the competition.
