What is Rotary?

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and in particular, to encourage and foster:

First: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service

Second: High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society

Third: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal business and community life

Fourth: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Established in 1905, Rotary International is the world's oldest and most international service organization with over 1.2 million members in 32,000 clubs in almost 170 countries.
