The presentation is the work of the Electoral College Committee of the League of Women Voters of Illinois and will explain why the framers of the Constitution created the Electoral College and their intent in doing so. It will also outline the impact the Electoral College has had on voter turnout, how it polarizes the nation, and other consequences.

The content of the program is based on publications by George C. Edwards III, a Distinguished Professor of Political Science and Jordan Chair in Presidential Studies at Texas A&M University. A leading scholar of the presidency, he has authored or edited 25 books on American politics and public policy making, and was instrumental in bringing the George H.W. Bush Presidential Library and Museum to Texas A&M University's campus.

Rosemary Heilemann is a member of the League of Women Voters of the Deerfield Area. She is a retired teacher. She has held many positions in local, county, and state Leagues of Women Voters over 40 years and is a founding member of the LWVIL Electoral College Committee.
