THAT'S ROTARY

If you make somebody
happy;
And do it nice and snappy,
That's Rotary, that's Rotary
If you love the life you're living

And learn the joy of giving,
That's Rotary, that's Rotary
Friendship throughout the whole wide world
The flag of peace unfurled
So every one can see it,
If you get that fellow
feeling,

Down in your heart a-
stealing,
That's Rotary, that's Rotary.

MISSION-VISION STATEMENT

OUR MISSION

TO BE THE OUTSTANDING CLUB IN THE DISTRICT

OUR VISION

INNOVATOR FOR A HAPPIER AND MORE ACTIVE CLUB

Message RI Pres. Sakuji Tanaka August 2012

Dear fellow Rotarians,

What is Rotary? When I ask Rotarians this question, they often give vague answers. And when I asked myself this question, I had to think about it. August is Membership and Extension Month in Rotary, and I want all Rotarians to be able to send a unified message about what Rotary is and why they joined.

The key to increasing membership is for every Rotarian to be convinced that it's good to be a Rotarian, and to convey that passion to others. In Rotary, we have a tendency to be humble and keep our achievements to ourselves. But we must share them with those around us and with the world.

Every Rotarian has a specific moment that stands out and has a special meaning. Some people refer to this as their "Rotary Moment." I believe it is very important to share this moment with others. Facts and numbers can only go so far, but sharing a personal experience can open doors and build friendships.

That's why I decided to create some sample messages that I call "Rotary Moments." You can use these one-minute and three-minute messages to answer the question "What is Rotary?" in a way that is most personal to you. They will help you talk about the projects you've been involved in, how they've helped your community, and what's been most meaningful to you.

To strengthen Rotary, we need more members. But unless those members are convinced of the benefits of the organization and can share that passion with others, expanding Rotary won't be meaningful.

If every Rotarian is happy about being a Rotarian and spreads the word with a clear, unified message – if every Rotarian around the world can be his or her own PR department – the combined, collective effect will be enormous. These sample messages will help us all clearly communicate our enthusiasm to others. This will lead to an increase in new membership and in member retention.

The messages are available for free download at www.rotary.org, and Rotarians can buy other membership materials at shop.rotary.org.

I believe that the purpose of every life is to help others and contribute to society. Once Rotarians begin using these samples, the world will become more aware of how Rotary is helping people live that way. I encourage you to share your Rotary Moment with other Rotarians as well as non-Rotarians.

President's Message

Pres. Herbert "Abot" Doles

Welcome to our 5th regular meeting.

August is membership and extension month in Rotary. Let me focus on this, one of the measureable gauges of success within our club is our membership growth. So I am appealing to everyone to bring in qualified members into our club. Share with them the magic of Rotary which is changing the lives of others not only in our community but around the globe. Let us not just increase our membership but also bring into our club the right people, those who will make time to serve, those who will add value in our club, especially those who will embrace Rotary's motto SERVICE ABOVE SELF.

This is not just anyone's responsibility. It is our shared responsibility as Rotarians. Remember this as I read: "Rotary is not an organization of heroes. It is composed of men and women who choose to serve for the privilege of doing so rather than for personal interest."

Many thanks to those who attended and were registered at the MDS in Balanga, Bataan, namely, Sec Glenn, VP Tony, PE Noli, PP Bernie, Dir Sam, Dir Gary, Treas Gigi, Rtn Aga, Rtn Che, Rtn Darwin, Rtn Jess, Rtn Donna, Rtn Willy, Rtn Lyn and myself.

Thank you and may God bless us all...

Second, participate in the first-ever Rotary Moment Tweet Day (<http://twitter.com/rotary>) on 14 August. Tweet about your favorite Rotary memory or event, talk about your club's activities, or share your community service project. Use hashtag #RotaryMoment.

Not on Twitter? Listen to Rotary's popular webinar Using Social Media to Promote Your Club or District (<https://www1.gotomeeting.com/register/751740369>) to learn how to create a Twitter account, post your first tweet, use hashtags, and lots more.

Rotary Club Central, new online goal-setting tool for club and district leaders, launches
Rotary News -- 25 July 2012

Rotary Club Central, an online tool to help club and district leaders set and track goals, launched last week. It gives Rotary a better way to measure the impact Rotarians are making worldwide.

The new tool empowers club and district leaders to monitor club progress and achievements in three key performance areas: membership initiatives, service activities, and Rotary Foundation giving.

Rotary Club Central includes charts that track membership retention and Annual Fund giving over the past five years. District leaders can view a summary of club progress.

Club leaders are encouraged to log in to Member Access and enter their data in Rotary Club Central so that club members, the district governor, and assistant governors can see it.

Look for additional goals and features in the coming months.

If you have any questions, email the Contact Center (<http://www.rotary.org/en/AboutUs/ContactUs/Pages/ridefault.aspx>) or contact your Club and District Support representative.¹

OPINION

Who Do You Know?

By Frank Deaver

Rotary Club of Tuscaloosa, Alabama USA

A young journalist applied for a job at a newspaper, and was being interviewed by the editor. Among the questions asked of the applicant was, "Who do you know?" Anxious to impress the editor, the young man mentioned being acquainted with the mayor, a banker, a school board member, and he added, "I once shook hands with the governor in a receiving line."

The editor was not satisfied with that boastful answer and he probed further: "But do you know a homeless family? A crippled child? Someone who is unemployed? A working single mother?"

Similarly, as Rotarians, we might ask ourselves, "Who do we know?" We gather in our weekly meetings with others who, like ourselves, were invited to Rotary membership because of our demonstrated leadership in business and professional circles. Unlike the young journalist, we have greater opportunity to know such people as mayors, bankers, school board members, and yes, perhaps the governor. We take that for granted, but do we know those less fortunate who were mentioned by the editor? Do we find opportunity to extend our personal contacts beyond the circle of Rotary colleagues?

Paul Harris, along with three friends, founded Rotary in what his biographer called a "friendly spirit among businessmen." He recalled being entertained socially by a professional friend, and he was impressed by the informality, especially that he was introduced to various businessmen by their first names. From the first Rotary meetings, he defined that Rotary would be based in informality, and that Rotarians would call each other by their first names.

A college president, recognizing that a young instructor had expressed interest in Rotary, took him to meetings as a guest, then introduced him into membership. Driving back to campus together after the induction, the president said, "Now you need to know that Rotarians are first-name friends. I'm John." The young teacher swallowed hard, wondering if he could adjust to calling his president by first name. He said, "On campus, I still called him President... or Doctor... but at Rotary, I learned to be comfortable calling him John."

Such is the informality within Rotary. But the question remains, "Who do we (really) know?" Upon leaving the comfort zone of a Rotary meeting, are we equally comfortable exploring opportunities of service among the less fortunate? We know each other, our business and professional associates, but have we looked beyond that circle of colleagues? Do we know the homeless, the unemployed, the desperate and destitute?

Rotary is known for its dual purpose of fellowship and service. Fellowship is who we know in our weekly meetings. Service includes those we know – or need to know – beyond that fellowship circle. Like the young journalist, we might more sincerely ask ourselves, "Who do we know?"

Subject: JOINT MEETING VIA SKYPE

Pres Abot / PP Glenn,

The possibility of holding again a Joint Meeting via skype was brought up by RCLMS. The idea is to hold it during the signing for the renewal of our Sisterhood Agreement, most probably on the 2nd or 3rd meeting of August.

Could you please discuss this with all concerned, particularly PPs Sam and Albert, so that I would know what to tell them. Maybe we could invite DG Tony to be the GS.

Thanks.
