

GROOVY Fashion of 1969

Fashion from 1969 included a lot of detailed patterns, solid colors, flared pants, long necklaces, loose fitting clothes, headbands, stacked bracelets, many rings, dangling earrings, tie dye, brown suede and beading, stripes and unstyled hair

A man for each mood... Three piece green suit, £38. Pink thick cotton shirt, 66. Printed scarf, £3 from Just Men. White suit, £30 at Way In, Knightsbridge, London, S.W.1. Green self-stripe shirt, £4, Sydney Smith. Striped schoolboy tie, 16s. 6d., Take Six. Brown patent shoes, £11 11s., Elliott. Grey fitted velvet suit, £18 18s., from Take Six, London. Patchwork silk shirt, 29 9s. by Mother Wouldn't Like It, from Kings, London, S.W.3.

Feeling not-so-hippie? Take inspiration from your favorite 1969 inspired character or person. From Sesame Street to the Beatles, Nixon to Neil Armstrong, the sky's the limit.

