

Waukegan Rotary

Bulletin July, August & September 2019

Club News – Newly installed president Al Oller has announced that our club will begin meeting in what was our former format with lunch being served at each Thursday meeting. And speaking of newly installed...

...on June 15th Waukegan and North Chicago hosted a joint installation and networking event at the Genesee theatre. The Community Action Partnership catered the event. It was truly a unique and rewarding afternoon. And speaking of rewarding...

...Gwen Kennedy was welcomed to the Waukegan Rotary Club as she was installed by outgoing President Dr. Charmaine Hillary.

Other news – On July 28th over 100 meals were served at the Methodist Church as Rotary members, family and friends fed the hungry. Starting September 4th, the club will move back to it's former format with lunch being served at each Thursday meeting. If a 5th Thursday falls within a month we will NOT meet and all are asked to look for service opportunities.
