Rotary Club of Kenai, Club # 100

VOLUME 1, ISSUE 3 ~ JANUARY 12, 2009

Community Care Center update

Matt, Dave & Jeanette met at the Kenai Peninsula Community Care Center on Friday and looked over the project. As it stands now we will repaint 2 bedrooms, remove the cove base, purchase & place new mattress/bedding/curtains each room, and replace the flourscent strip lights with residential incandescent fixtures. If time & labor allow we may repaint 1 wall in the main living area. Matt will have a sign up list at Rotary today, we'll shoot to do the work on Saturday, 1/17. With enough help we should be able to knock it out in 1 day. The Club will have to determine if we want to participate in the floor replacement cost. More today.

OK Team 3, what's on tap for the month of January? Only 2 more meetings.....

WE WON!!!!

Craig didn't leave town, he was at Rotary on Monday.....and presented President Mya with the gold BELL!! and an engraved plaque, recognizing that we WON!! Yea, we beat out Soldotna Rotary for the first time, at least on the bell award. It's pretty sweet to see: 2005 Soldotna Rotary, 2006 Soldotna Rotary, 2007 Soldotna Rotary, 2008 Kenai Rotary! Way to go Rotarians. And Craig passed on a very heartfelt "Thanks" to all of you for support of the Salvation Army here on the Kenai. We appreciate you too Craig.
