All sessions are in Justin Carr's Senior English class. Sign in at the office and get directions if needed.

A very sincere thank you to each of you Rotarians for volunteering to teach a class. The students will benefit from the depth, experience, & perspective that you will provide.

If you have never done this before, you can still volunteer to team up with someone. Any of the instructors would welcome the help, and it's great to maintain student interest with a trade off to a different voice.

Board of Directors Meeting, 2/13

President Mya has scheduled a BOD meeting at high noon, 1st American Title conference room, Friday. It's a BYOL (bring your own lunch).

Remember any Rotarian can attend a BOD meeting, and it counts as a make up for missing a regular meeting. Plus it's fun (?) to see what the Board really does, kinda like making sausage.....do you really want to see how they make it?

Program Schedule:

Team 4 has it for February

- February 9- Mr. Mayor, Dave Carey, A history of the Kenai Peninsula Borough
 - February 16- Glenda Feeken, Snapshot of current real estate trends
- February 23- Ms. Mayor, Pat Porter, The State of the City

Way to go Team 4, you're set for the month!!

And the winner is.....

Well finally, someone drew out the blue chip ~ Congratulations Glenda!!!!
it's worth $ 173.00; thank goodness we don't have an IRS agent in the Club.
And oh Glenda for just a few $$ this E News remains confidential, right?

George Ford has the time set, ready for the muscle. We need volunteers to prepare the historic cabins for the move to their new home. Work parties run from 9am-5pm, Thursday thru Monday, thru April. They have a skilled supervisor/foreman so you don't need to be a Finnish carpenter or even an Irish carpenter.....just a desire to help. Call George to schedule a time- 283-7700

Kenai Job Shadow program~

Scott says, they they are close, but that only counts in horseshoes, sooo they can still use some help matching the students with mentors. The Kenai Job Shadow program is scheduled for Feb. 24. Kenai Rotary was working the phones last week, lets do it again!! This is Vocational Service.
