HAPPY BUCK$

Kevin Van Nortwick is happy to thank those individuals in our club for bringing guests and adding new members to our club who are under the age of 65 and not wielding a cane.

Paul Michelsohn is happy to announce that the scholarship committee has made its selection of this year's scholarship recipients.

Bob Thwing has a happy buck and a high five for his granddaughter who was recently accepted into the WAMI program.

Susan Kaer is happy to announce her guest Justin Thompson.

Dan Locke is happy to pay up! Is anyone having an anniversary? Mmmmmmm, I wonder who?

Sam Lazenby is happy to be celebrating his Birthday.

Lyn Whitley is happy to announce that Face Book is great, and an excellent way to keep in contact with our Rotary exchange student who is having a great time abroad. They have become Face Book friends. She also has happy bucks for her Rotary team who stepped up to the plate and got the job done.

Matthew Nicolai has a happy $14 bucks for his recent trip to Hawaii.

Mike Morrison is happy to introduce a new Rotary Exchange student from Finland who is attending Anchorage South High school.

Lynn Spivey is happy to share an update regarding Karl, our exchange student, who injured himself playing soccer by landing on the side of his foot.

Mary Olszewski has a happy $10 dollars for her upcoming birthday. She is also happy about the fact that she will be out for a week and will have the opportunity to visit her grandsons.

Carolynn Lambrecht has a few happy bucks for the awesome ladies night out! It was a lot of fun.

Mike Ferris has to ditto Carolynn's happy bucks as ladies night out was a great time. Are we getting in touch with our feminine side?

Chris Horton is happy to share his son's recent successes with hockey. He also would like to remind everyone to visit the Jewelry Cache. Everything is 50% OFF.

Program Speaker: Marianne Kerr of The Cooperative Extension Service, UAF

Created in the 1930's as a department within the Alaska Agricultural College and School of Mines, the Extension serves some 80,000 Alaskans annually, providing a link between Alaska's diverse people and communities by interpreting and extending relevant university, research-based knowledge in an understandable and usable form to the public.

UAF's Extension is part of the largest informal education system in the world, connecting Extension programs at land-grant colleges and universities in every U.S. territory and state. Extension offers hundreds of publications, written and produced by university specialists, which contain practical information of interest to Alaska residents. Many publications are free and available online.

Major program areas include: agriculture and horticulture; health, home and family development; natural resources and community development; 4-H and youth development.
