HAPPY BUCK$

Chris Dunn gave five happy bucks for a five day weekend his wife organized for Memorial Day and his birthday. Every year they rent an RV and travel the Willow Fishhook road up to the Valley. Unfortunately when they made it all of the way up the road, the gate was closed due to river overflow. They had to improvise by searching google maps for a long dirt road, which they found, then had an excellent weekend in the sun!

Susan Kaer is happy to be back and encouraged everyone to sign-up early for Changing of the Guard at the Petroleum Club Wednesday, June 19, beginning at 6:00 pm. Last year was a sell out. It's Golf attire and golf watching attire. Tickets are $45.00/person. Drinks are $8.50.

George Frushour is a very happy non-homeowner of a previous dwelling.

Lynn Whitley is a happy new convert to the advantages of using ASR-member services to arrange her most recent travel.

Ross Johnston happily arranged his own birthday lunch at ASR with Mom, Jennifer, and brother, Lauchie, treating all ASR May 30 b-days and ourselves to ukulele recorded live for Fiverr.com (not a Fine Point affiliate) – And we'll get his birthday $$, too!

Ryan Callaway is X-TRA happy after a Memorable Memorial Family Weekend – Wife Lindsey is X-PECTING their next baby.

Ginger Gorsuch is happily celebrating her first year anniversary with Rotary.

Yuri Lackey is happy and we're happy to see his smiling face at the table.

Paul Michelsohn is happy with his newest Memorial Day bear pelt.

Mark Mitchell is happy for his anniversary with the club, and we are saddened to hear his brother is away for cancer treatment. We send our happier thoughts their way, and keep the family close to heart.

Matthew Nicolai contributed 100 happy dollars toward his Paul Harris for turning 60 and getting free senior hunting fishing licenses AND for his son, David, getting married on June 8. Lastly he happily announced that he made up at Mitchell Rotary in Milwaukee last week.

Paul Schilling has 33 happy years of Rotary Service under his belt.

Kevin Taylor is happy to explore South African idiom and share guide service data, thanking Dan Locke for taking Sgt. of Arms duty during Kevin's family safari.

Lynn Spivey is happy to coach our exchange student Karl in his happy buck introduction of fellow-exchange student guests. These students joined Anchorage East for lunch last week.

Mike Morrison is happy to let us know next week's program will be a treat from Karl.

Kevin Van Nortwick is happily consoling himself, at the close of his presidential term, with GOLF & BUSINESS in southeast USA. Gotta love golf to beat that 99% humidity! A yet-to-be-disclosed past president will enliven the meeting in Kevin's name, and President Kevin will live it down in return.

Mike Griffin looks happy, and we all share Rotarian fellowship and glee in the sunshine

SPEAKER: ASR was treated to an unexpected remembrance and tribute to Don Dwiggin's from prior Assembly member and chair Dan Coffey and current Assembly Chair Ernie Hall, on the Title 21 land use code Rewrite, recently adopted by the Anchorage Assembly, effective 2014. Dan Coffey said he worked closely with many of Don's concerns and it appears we can count on Mr. Coffey to keep those fires burning as implementation of new zoning and land use code begins next year.
