VOCATIONAL SERVICE MONTH ends tomorrow. We can look back on another highly successful Brown Bag DineAround, and forward to today's Vocational Service Award winners, who exemplify this important Avenue of Service. Vocation plays an important role for Rotarians throughout the year — especially in our commitment to ethics. Rotary's Four Way Test and the Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions service as our guides to ethical behavior.

The Four-Way Test was conceived in 1932 by Herbert J. Taylor, a member of the Rotary Club of Chicago and RI president, 1954-55. Assigned the task of saving a company from bankruptcy, Taylor developed the test as an ethical guide to follow in all business matters. The company's survival was credited to this simple philosophy, which was adopted by RI in 1934.

The Declaration of Rotarians in Businesses and Professions was adopted by the Rotary International Council on Legislation in 1989 to provide more specific guidelines for the high ethical standards called for (Object of Rotary).

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

- Consider my vocation to be another opportunity to serve;
- Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of my community;
- Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation;
- Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public, and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship;
- Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to society;
- Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
- Adhere to honesty in my advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession;
- Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.

Congratulations, in advance, to today's honorees.

And congratulations to our own Rotary Club of Juneau, briefly featured in the November issue of ROTARIAN magazine — and the amazing Lemon Creek Crews who saw this project to fruition... especially Denny, Sandy, Wayne, Armando... et. al.

Early Bird Registration for the 2013 District Conference is available until December 30th. The first ten members who sign up will receive their registration for free. Just register, pay and submit your invoice to Treasurer Karen Morgan. Visit: ktn.rotary5010conference.org. And think about getting your airfare soon to qualify for a PFD fare! (May 9-12, 2013)

BIDDING & BREAKFAST: November is Foundation Month...

Don't miss November 13th's meeting and the chance to not only get a head start on your holiday shopping, but to support the Rotary Foundation and our fundraising "giving goal" of $12,000. Bid early and often on great donations such as flightseeing and heli-tours, Thyes' amazing jewelry, voice lessons (Diva Sandy), Hawaiian and Indian dinners, nine dozen cookies (from Beverly, who is also making the centerpieces), an antique fan, goodies from the brewery and much, much more! A dessert auction rounds out the event — and the opportunity to purchase one of the centerpieces.

Here's a glimpse at Thyes' Swarovski crystal and sterling silver 20" necklace and matching earring set (R), and a magnificent 20" necklace with green opal, black onyx, and blue quartz beads and sterling silver clasp (L).

This mint condition, antique ventilation fan, was taken from the AJ Mine and installed in a greenhouse for many years before Fred Koken acquired it. Newly wired, it works perfectly! (minimum bid, $100.)

Celebrate Foundation Month with our annual Paul Harris Brunch — 9am-11am at the Juneau Yacht Club for all past, present and future Paul Harris Fellows. Bring a breakfast dish, the family, and other Rotarians — past or present — as well as Foundation alumni such as scholarship winners or GSE team members. The highlight will be a brief presentation about our wheelchair deliveries in Guadalajara, Russia and upcoming Colima.

MORE AUCTION-INFO: Grab Bags are Back better than ever!

Purchase a grab bag for $50 at today's meeting – loaded with treats, company swag, coupons – and for one lucky purchaser, a Paul Harris Fellowship ($1000 value). Any bags not sold today, will be sold up to the day of the auction.

New auction payment process available this year

At this year's auction, rather than waiting in line to pay, you'll have the option of filling out a short RI form with your credit card number. The total charged will be reviewed to make sure it's correct, and then it'll immediately be turned over to The Rotary Foundation. The goal is to speed up the receipt of money for the Foundation, save the club credit card fees, make certain everyone has their 2012 tax forms in a timely manner – and speed up the check-out process, as well (as long as you keep track of your auction winnings!).

See ClubRunner for a listing of auction items, submit your prebids to Marsha or Marian, Foundation co-chairs, and remember — you can bring friends (and members of other clubs). They'll have a great time — and we'll maximize our Foundation giving with every purchase!

OOOk-lahoma, where the wind comes sweepin' down the plain... November 18th — fun, fellowship AND food at Perseverance for OKLAHOMA. Bring a dish for a pre-show, tri-Club (and Rotaract) potluck, then sit back and enjoy this great American theatre classic. More info is available on ClubRunner. $16/ticket!

New Polio Plus initiative

In addition to our Rotary Foundation goal, our club has committed to raise a total of $2,000 for the "Polio Plus" drive, RI's international initiative to eradicate polio. Starting this week, we will have sheets of 20/45-cent "Stamp out Polio" stamps available for purchase for a minimum contribution of $25 per sheet. The stamps may be used as postage, or the sheet may be kept as a collectors' item. We hope to raise $700 through this effort after recouping the cost of the sheets, all of which will go to Polio Plus. Beginning this week, our $50 speaker fee, and our split the pot raffle will be directed to Polio Plus.
