Gatineau Humane Society

Matthew Musslewhite has been the executive director of the Gatineau humane society for the past year. He served as the Deputy Director for the five years prior to his appointment as the new executive director. Prior to that, he was a professional mariner working around the world on ocean going tugboats. He and his wife, Kelly Moxley, have one golden retriever named Lena and are anxiously awaiting their first child this summer.

Catholic Community Service

Robin Thomas is the Development Director for Catholic Community Service (CCS). She has been with CCS since June of 2013 and has been in her current position since July 2014. Robin is originally from Scottsdale Arizona. She is number 6 out of 7 children in her family. Robin started coming to Alaska seasonally in 2005 working for Holland America Princess (HAP) in Skagway. She worked in Skagway for 5 summers before she was hired on for year round employment with HAP here in Juneau. After 4 years working for HAP in Juneau, and after turning 30, Robin decided to seek out a new adventure in social services. She has enjoyed her time with CCS thus far and really enjoys the fund development side. Some of Robin's interests are cooking, cleaning, organizing, decorating, hosting, and spending time with friends and family. Robin is the proud aunt of 14 nieces and nephews. Her brother and sister live in Skagway with their families. Robin loves Southeast

Alaska and living here in Juneau. She enjoys the sense of community that she feels within Juneau and in her current position with CCS.
