2015-2016 Rotary
International Theme:

This Week's Program: Dave Rubin, the Making of the Statue of Seward

Dave Rubin and Judith Rubin, a brother sister team

The work of Dave Rubin, a painter, sculptor, illustrator, and musician, reflects the life and times in Southeast Alaska. His work has found its way not only into private homes, but into courthouses, schools, galleries and museums. The Rock, his largest piece to date, is an example of how Dave's work and his life in Ketchikan are entwined—the life-size figures represent the history of the city through the industries and cultures that helped build it: native cultures, early settlers, logging, fishing, mining, and aviation. Dave Rubin currently teaches drawing and painting at DAS Ketchikan campus. Art is more than just a career for Dave, it's his hobby, his pastime and his recreation.

Judy has a BFA in sculpture from Cornell University. She has worked professionally for over twenty-five years as both a commercial and fine art sculptor. Many years were spent working in the animation industry, and Judy also has a good deal of experience in relief sculpture as well.

Dave and Judy efficiently and effectively worked together to create The Rock in 2008.

RI NEWS: SUCCESSFUL WOMEN MENTOR YOUTH

When Clara Montanez was a student, she never heard the word mentoring. The idea of having a role model help you pursue your ambitions was unfamiliar to her.

"You basically chose your career based on personal interest and hoped you could find a job," says Montanez, senior director of investment for Oppenheimer & Co., Inc. "I went the route of getting married and having children first, and started my career later in life. I had no model for how to do that."

That changed for Montanez the day a friend invited her to join Rotary.
