Today's program

Prized passages

Join your fellow Rotarians in reading from their favorite books

Today, members of the Rotary Club of Juneau are asked to bring their favorite books and to have an excerpt ready to share.

To help inspire some top selections, here's a bit from one of President Brenda Hewitt's favorites. See if you can figure out the title.

"Consider the subtleness of the sea; how its most dreaded creatures glide under water, unapparent for the most part, and treacherously hidden beneath the loveliest tints of azure. Consider also the devilish brilliance and beauty of many of its

Rotary Rose Sale is in full bloom

There are less than six weeks left to get orders in for this year's Rotary Rose Sale.

If you're having trouble finding buyers, consider signing up to sell at the upcoming Home Show (March 7-9), at BaconFest (March 15) or at one of the other Juneau clubs, Glacier Valley at noon on Wednesdays or Gastineau at 7 a.m. on Thursdays.

Contact Karen Morgan to chip in or ask questions.

for training that will gear them up for a substantial role in peace and conflict resolution in their neighborhood, our country, region, or the world.

Each year, Rotary selects individuals from around the world to receive fully funded academic fellowships at one of our peace centers. These fellowships cover tuition and fees, room and board, round-trip transportation, and all internship/field study expenses.

Two types of peace fellowships are available: a professional development certificate earned in a 3-month program for those with more extensive experience in peace-related fields, in peace and conflict resolution at Chulalongkorn University in Bangkok, Thailand.

The other program is the master's degree track: We offer master's degree fellowships at premier universities in fields related to peace and conflict resolution and prevention. Programs last 15-24 months and require a practical internship of 2-3 months during the academic break. There are 50 master's fellowships available.

most remorseless tribes, as the dainty embellished shape of many species of sharks. Consider, once more, the universal cannibalism of the sea; all whose creatures prey upon each other, carrying on eternal war since the world began.

Consider all this; and then turn to the green, gentle, and most docile earth; consider them both, the sea and the land; and do you not find a strange analogy to something in yourself? For as this appalling ocean surrounds the verdant land, so in the soul of man there lies one insular Tahiti, full of peace and joy, but encompassed by all the horrors of the half-known life. God keep thee! Push not off from that isle, thou canst never return!"
