Rotary is not just about the fellowship we enjoy at weekly meetings or special events. As many who have attended an international conference know, Rotary also prides itself in its fellowships. These fellowships, as noted last week "are international, independently organized groups of Rotarians, Rotarian spouses, and Rotaractors who share a common vocation or recreational interest. Rotary Fellowships give their members the opportunity to have fun, make new friends around the world, and enhance their experience in Rotary."

As also noted last week, in honor of "Rotary Fellowships Month" here's a partial list of existing fellowships. To obtain the complete list, go to: http://www.rotary.org/Rldocuments/en_pdf/fellowships_flier_en.pdf If you're interested in a particular Rotary Fellowship, visit the group's website to find the designated contact:
