

The Windjammer

Today's program

Ready to fill the bill to stop a spill

Margaret Custer is a third-generation Rotarian, preparing for her third term as secretary for First City Rotary Club in Ketchikan. Her grandparents met in 1941 when her grandfather, an attorney and Rotarian, asked her grandmother, the pianist for the Rotary Club of Sheffield, Ala. to help with a victory garden project. Her mother, Margaret McCloy, is an active member of the Rotary Club of Florence, Ala.

Please see Spill, Page 2

Warning: Wet paint in the wetlands

Several Rotarians took to the viewing stand at the Mendenhall Wetlands last week to slap a fresh coat of paint on this perennial Rotary service project. Helping were Barbara Propes, Brenda Hewitt, Karen West, Dru Fenster, Denny Dewitt and Sandy Williams. Bruce Weyhrauch and Lt. Gov. Mead Treadwell stopped by to check out the project.

Calendar

June

Rotary Fellowship Month

- June 17: Margaret Custer, spill response in Southeast.
- June 22: Family Action Committee.

July

New Beginnings Month

- July 19: Rowdy Rotary Reunion.

Greeters

- Today: Karen West and Pam Halloran.
- Next week: Peter Jurasz and Doug Gardner.

Miss a meeting?
Make it up online at rotaryclubone.org

Submit news to juneauwindjammer@gmail.com

Thanks to AK Litho/CopyWorks, for printing The Windjammer!

Rotarians break records on Sydney bridge

[This article originally appeared on the Associated Press wire]

A record-breaking day on Sydney’s iconic Harbor Bridge took shape as more than 300 Rotary International members climbed the bridge in support of efforts to eradicate polio.

attention to our efforts to

“We are this close to eradicating polio, and this effort — in conjunction with BridgeClimb — has brought tremendous eradicate polio across the globe,” said Mark Maloney, Rotary International Convention Committee chairman.

They smashed two world records: one for the most people on the bridge and one for the most number of flags flown on it.

Tomi sets sail for good soon

Rotarians Drew Green and Denny DeWitt took inbound Tomi Katona out for a boat trip around Taku Inlet on May 28. Tomi is on a tour of the western United States right now, but will be back in Juneau for a few final weeks before returning home to his native Hungary. Let’s make sure his last days in Juneau are memorable ones! If you’re scheduled to do something with Tomi, make sure you follow through on those plans. And, if you haven’t shown Tomi the best Juneau has to offer, now’s the time!

Spill

Continued from Page 1

Margaret’s husband, Jason Custer, is also a member of First City Rotary.

Margaret is the Training and Response Team Manager for SEAPRO, the Southeast Alaska Petroleum Response Organization, which serves the oil spill preparedness and response needs of businesses in the region.

She travels annually to the 14 major communities of Southeast Alaska to conduct training and to provide expertise during spills and drills.