

The Windjammer

Today's speaker: An advocate for children

Lynn Squires-White is the Program Coordinator for the Juneau Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) program and a guardian ad litem for the Office of Public Advocacy (OPA). She worked as a contract guardian ad litem and custody investigator from 1993 until she was hired by OPA in 2006.

Squires-White was also employed as a counselor at Tongass Community Counseling Center and Gastineau Human Services from 1990 until 2005. She obtained her master's degree in psychology from Antioch University in 1988. Squires-White has lived in Juneau since 1988, is married and has two sons.

Calendar

July: Literacy Month

- 30: Club meeting. Speaker: Lynn Squires-White, CASA.

Upcoming events

August: Membership and Extension Month

- Aug. 13: Club meeting. Speaker: Lee Ann Hussey, Polio Plus.
- Aug. 17: Rowdy Rotary Reunion.

*

Greeters

- Today: Mary Siroky and Sharon Gaipman.
- Next week: Warren Russell and J. Allan MacKinnon.

Submit news to
juneauwindjammer
@gmail.com.

New year, new uniforms?

No, President Brenda hasn't gone mad with power (yet). Instead, Rotary Exchange Student Josette Renken, center, displays garb from Kyrgyzstan, where she spent a year as an outbound student. Joining Josette in making a fashion statement are Sally Saddler, left, and Virginia Stonkas.

Glacier Valley offers a 'quack' at some big bucks

Glacier Valley Rotary is set to have the ducks fly again at 11:30 a.m. Aug. 3 at Twin Lakes. Come out and join us as we await the rescue of the five big winners from Freda's flock. One lucky duck will win $5,000. If you haven't yet rescued a duck you can pick up a form from one of several local businesses.

Bon voyage for Blust Wednesday at JIA

Max Blust learned late last week he will be headed out for his year abroad Wednesday.

All Rotarians are invited to send Blust off in style at 6:45 a.m. tomorrow at Juneau International Airport, before he boards Flight No. 72 for the first leg of his trip to Hungary. Caitlyn McLaughlin asks anyone who is able to come by and wish Blust safe travels and good luck on his year abroad in Hungary.

"We know Max will have an incredible time, representing Juneau and the U.S. to the fullest, making us all very proud," McLaughlin stated in an email.

Kickin' it with Keishan ... in the cold

Inbound exchange student Keishan Pillay poses with a Rotary snowman atop the Juneau Icefield. He and Josette Renken recently took a Temsco helicopter tour there.

Brewfest tickets are on sale now, don't miss out

Tickets are now on sale for the Second Annual Capital City Brewfest, the beer tasting event that captivated Juneau in 2012.

This year's event will once again be held at the JACC, but in a larger space to accommodate more brewers, vendors and tasters.

Tickets can be bought online at www.capbrewfest.com or bought in person at the JACC or either of the Hearthside bookstores.

Tickets are $30 per person; $5 for a designated driver. Only adults 21 or older can attend.

Thanks to
AK Litho/
CopyWorks,
for printing
The Windjammer