This Week's Program: Assistant General Manager Mark Kiessling, Kensington Mine Update

Mark Kiessling joined Coeur Alaska's Kensington Mine in October of 2014 as the Assistant General Manager. He is responsible for Mine Operations, Maintenance, Supply Chain and Technical Services (engineering and geology) and he also acts as General Manager when Wayne Zigarlick is gone from site.

His career spans 16 years of mining both in large open pit and underground mines in locations such as Arizona, Nevada, Washington and now Alaska.

CAPITAL BREWFEST THIS SATURDAY

This Saturday, September 26 is our club's 4th Annual Capital Brewfest. Thanks to everyone who has signed up to volunteer at this event - it's success is all about the people power we bring to the event. Ticket sales are getting to 750 out of 900 and we're happy to report that the new VIP tickets are selling strong allowing our guests to get into the event 30 minutes earlier while providing our club with more proceeds for our charitable works without overfilling the event. Setup starts at 10AM at the Juneau Arts and Culture Center - we'll see you there for another successful event!

Capital Brewfest Tickets are available online at www.CapBrewFest.com
