TRUDY BIRD MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

$1,000.00

Trudy Bird was a dynamic woman – who was a committed wife, mother and grandmother who was devoted to her family and friends. She had a generous spirit and always offered her time, talents and treasures to those in need. She believed in the value of hard work, which no doubt emanated from her early years of working in her family grocery store in the 1930s. Her appreciation for the value of money earned through hard work remained with her during her lifetime and as such, it seems only appropriate that her family remember her kind and giving spirit with the endowment of a scholarship for a hard-working and committed student who needs help to achieve a dream.

Playa Venice Sunrise Rotary Club is looking for a candidate who is excited to pursue their education and career, particularly in a vocational school or junior college, and feel that their efforts to date make them worthy of this scholarship. This scholarship is need based.
