PROGRAM – Story, Song & Spirit

John Mollet

John Mollet, currently serves as Senior Pastor for First United Methodist Church Grapevine, a position he started in June, 2011.

He graduated from Highland Park High School in 1970, Centenary College of Louisiana with a B.A. degree in Religion in 1974 and Perkins School of Theology, SMU, with a MTh (Master of Theology) in 1978. Prior to serving at First Methodist Grapevine, John was Senior Pastor at Stonebridge United Methodist Church in McKinney for eight years. John also served at First Methodist Church Lewisville, Chapel Hill United Methodist Church in Farmers Branch, First Methodist Church Iowa Park and First Methodist Church Denton.

John has two grown sons, Aaron and Jared. One lives in the area and the other in New York; both continue to make their mother and father very proud.

John's favorite scripture is John 14:17 because "in it Jesus reminds me that God's spirit abides with me and is in me. There have been many times in my life when I have found comfort in knowing God's presence is that close and challenge in knowing I am called to expose that spirit to those around me."

For fun, John enjoys golf, cooking and being with family and friends.
