PROGRAM – Valuing Our Community...

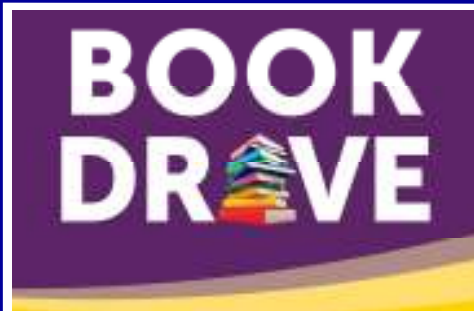

Starting the Conversation

Suzanne Mitchell-Seward

Suzanne is a native of Grapevine and graduated from Grapevine High School (GHS), as did two of her children, Zach 2006 and Cassidy 2011. Her oldest daughter Samantha graduated in Longview 2007.

She studied Art and Interior Design and has worked for several furniture and design businesses. She currently owns a home redesign/staging business which allows her to customize furniture and decor for her clients. She is a member of the American Business Women's Association (ABWA) and participates in the Grapevine Chapter. She also belongs to several coalitions in the metroplex that deal with the drug & alcohol issues surrounding our communities.

Suzanne values spending time with her family & friends, traveling, biking and chocolate! She has a love of dogs and works with a local Grapevine rescue in fostering.

GMS March 2017 Book Drive

The Club is divided into 3 teams (based on columns on the back of the bulletin). The team which contributes the least amount of books will experience the joy of service above self by serving lunch during one of the weekly meetings!

Books are to be middle school appropriate. Mary Jo Tellin has a e-list which she can send to you if you would like to review before you buy!
