Today's Program

Fayette County Dual Enrollment

Lakisha Bonner, Lisa Collins, Virginia Gibbs

Lakisha Bonner is the Coordinator of Counseling and Career Development for Fayette County Public Schools. She received her Master's degree from Winthrop University and her Educational Specialist from West Georgia University. As a dedicated educational professional, she has built and maintained a successful career as a result of her ability to work enthusiastically with school staff and administrators in an effort to ensure students are college and career ready. As a former lead guidance counselor, she has counseled thousands of students in several schools and fulfilled administrative level responsibilities that include master scheduling, curriculum development and enrichment, and facilitating dynamic school programs. Since 1993, she has consistently championed requirements to achieve academic proficiency of all students, and the operational efficiency of public and private schools. Mrs. Bonner resides in Fayetteville with her husband Travis. They have two children, Taylor and Noah.

Lisa Collins is the Director for Career, Technical, and Agricultural Education (CTAE) for Fayette County Public Schools. She received her Master's degree from the University of Albany and her Educational Specialist from Lincoln University. Mrs. Collins has 28 years of educational experience spanning grades 3-12 with specific concentrations in business education, instructional technology, and leadership.

Through the collaboration of all stakeholders, the CTAE Department has expanded existing programs in the areas of animation, broadcasting, culinary arts, engineering, and health science. Mrs. Collins resides in Senoia, with her husband Jerry. They have 2 children, Kyle and Branden.

Virginia retired last December after a decade as President/CEO of the Fayette Chamber of Commerce. She is now the Coordinator of Innovative Partnership Development, Work-Based Learning, and Youth Apprenticeships for the Fayette County Board of Education.

She has an undergraduate degree in Mechanical and Materials Engineering from Duke University, and an MBA from West Virginia University. Virginia has lived in Peachtree City with her husband Dan since 1991. Their daughter Morgan is a sophomore at UGA (and an avid member of the Redcoat band), and their son, Harrison is a senior at McIntosh HS. Virginia is excited to be back to visit with her many PTC Rotarian friends this week!
