Scholarship
Program
Application

The Rotary Club of Camas-Washougal is pleased to announce its 2016-17 Non-Traditional Scholarship Program. Our goal in this endeavor is to encourage those adults desiring to further their education after high school. This program is designed to recognize those adults who have demonstrated a commitment to improve themselves and their community. (Note: Students who are currently attending their senior year of high school should NOT use this application form. They should use the regular scholarship application.)
