

Meet Zach Haveman

Introduction by Joe Phillips

It is my pleasure to introduce our newest member, Zach Haveman, who is an attorney with Carney, Badley, Spellman. Zach has been nominated by Todd Summerfelt and Charley Dickey and his classification is Legal Services.

Zach grew up in Medford, OR, and attended Gonzaga University where he earned a degree in business and developed a passion for Zag basketball. He then attended law school at Seattle U, graduating in 2015 and taking a position with Lee and Hayes in their Spokane office. He used his business degree to specialize in IP and Merger and Acquisition law.

Wanting to do more with start-up and emerging businesses, he joined Carney, Badley, Spellman a year ago here in Seattle.

In November, he and his wife, Tana, who he met at Gonzaga, were married. One of Zach's passions is travel, and lucky for Zach, Tana is a flight attendant with Alaska Airlines, which of course has its benefits when it comes to travelling. The next trip they have planned is their honeymoon to Spain and Portugal, in case you are wondering.

Tana and Zach also have a website design business on the side, drawing upon some of the skills they developed at Gonzaga.

Besides college basketball, Zach is also a big Seahawks fan, something that dates back to his time in Medford where the town is split between the Hawks and the evil San Francisco 49ers. That may be one reason why Zach needed to earn a Black Belt in Karate by the time he was 11.

When asked why Rotary, Zach said he wants to find an organization that can help him give back to the community. He also recognizes the power of the Rotary network.

Please join me in welcoming our newest member, Zach Haveman.
