LOCATION

Originally developed as a secluded family estate during the 1920's, Menucha now serves as a retreat center overlooking the Columbia River Gorge. It offers stunning views and recreational facilities for swimming, volleyball, hiking, tennis, and basketball, all tucked into a beautiful wooded setting that beckons for exploration during free times and evenings.

Wright Hall features newly renovated dormitory-style rooms with showers, as well as provides home-cooked meals three times per day.

ROTARY CONNECTS THE WORLD

Rotary is one of the largest international service associations, with some 34,000 clubs in more than 200 countries. It's members are dedicated to humanitarian service, high ethical standards and promotion of world understanding and peace.

One of Rotary's goals is to help young people maximize their leadership abilities and self-confidence.

Participant's tuition of $1,000 is paid for by the sponsoring Rotary Club.
