102 E. Yanonali Street, Santa Barbara

Guest Speaker: Barbara Gaughen-Muller

Barbara Gaughen-Muller has devoted her life to peace and is an active Rotarian, as the 2023 chair of the RAGFP and co-founder, past President of the Rotary E-Club of World Peace.

- She is the creator and host of PeacePodcast.org with 150 zoom Podcasts with world peace leaders and has an online Peace Community Magazine available at peacepodcast.org.
- As the 2024-25 President of the United Nations Association, Southern California Division, she is working with the UN and the Sustainable Development Goals.
- She is the co-author Revolutionary Conversations: The Tools You Need for the Success You Want and received the Spirit of the United Nations Award after her 70th anniversary speech at the U.N headquarters in New York.
- She is a Board member of the International Cities of Peace and Santa Barbara is COP #323.
- Frequent speaker for Rotary Clubs on “How to be a Rotarian Spokesperson For World Peace”.

Starting this past Spring, three batons have been passed during club meetings to all members in Rotary District 5240 as well as at local community organizations, schools and events. This action signified our unity in being PeaceBuilders, and the batons will now be returned to their originating clubs and brought to Santa Barbara for this culminating event.
