President Christy called the meeting to order at 12:15 pm. Bruce Keith gave the invocation and Larry Moxley led the flag salute. Bruce also led the club in singing This Land is Your Land.

Visiting Rotarians included Norman and Joyce Bottenberg from Sammamish WA, Kevin McCuster from Visalia, and Jackie Jans from the West club. Christy made sure to hand out I Love Bakersfield buttons and exchanged banners with the out of town Rotarians.

Jackie Jans presented the club with certificate for donating $1,500 or more to the End Polio Now campaign.

Larry Moxley announced the birth of his new grandson. A collection was taken.

Everyone was asked to pray for George Larson as he struggles with back pain.

Bob Parker was presented a huge card in honor of his recent retirement. Much of the card was spelled out using candy bars.

Wayne Kress returned from Miami with no suck-up gifts. He said Miami was really expensive.

Steve Gibbs reported on the Interact conference in Oxnard. He said it was a successful well attended event.

Harvey Hall was our speaker. He is the owner of Hall Ambulance and was the longest serving mayor in Bakersfield history. He says he really misses being mayor and he was happy to see Bakersfield break into the top 10 cities in California. He continues his service in the areas of the homeless, hiring the disabled, and distributing automatic defibrillators. He thanked BERC for the services they have provided the community.

Bruce Keith won $50 for drawing the joker on lucky bucks.

Quon Louey was not so lucky, getting fined $50 from not paying attention.
