Li and Steve Gibbs – Rotary Power Couple

Li Gibbs joined us to discuss KernYes! at Friday's meeting. Combining community and understanding, KernYes! unites youth from throughout Kern County for a one-day youth empowerment summit (YES). This summit focuses on each students' personal growth and development through group dynamics, workshops, and speakers that addresses the key components of ethics, diversity, team building, and leadership. Current board members include. If you are interested in assisting with the upcoming one-day event happening February 10th please connect with one of the current board members; Amanda Frank, Ron White, or Jon Lifquist.

Other Happenings

President Christy Swatzell and Fernando Aguirre

Rotarian of the Month

President Christy acknowledged Fernando Aguirre as Rotarian of the Month for his dedication and exceptional work in Community Service projects over the years.

Craft Talk w/Amanda Frank

Amanda Frank provided the club with a Craft Talk where she shared her roles and responsibilities at Adventist Health. No, she does not attend parties for a living. She has a variety of tasks within the hospital that include working with donors and helping raise awareness. Upcoming events include VIPink happening October 12th from 5:30-8:30 P.M. at Adventist Health.
