Important Information about the Rotary Club of Montecito Foundation Grants

- There are two grant cycles per fiscal year.
- Grants will usually be made in the $300 to $500 range per organization
- Grants from the Rotary Club of Montecito Foundation are only made to organizations with 501 (c) 3 designations. (Non 501 (c) 3 contributions must be solicited directly from the Rotary Club of Montecito).
- Traditionally the Rotary Club of Montecito Foundation does not fund capital projects or provide general operating support.
- The Foundation prefers to fund project-specific requests.
- The Foundation prefers to fund local projects.
- A member of the Rotary Club of Montecito must sponsor each grant request.
- THE FOUNDATION WILL ONLY FUND FUTURE PROJECTS, not projects that have already been completed.

Key Dates

- The deadline to apply for funding in the Fall 2017 grant cycle is Tuesday, October 24, 2017.
- The Foundation will make a decision on this application by November 1, 2017.
- Awards will be presented at a Rotary luncheon on Tuesday, November 14, 2017 at 12:00 PM.
