April 14, 2010 Meeting – President Larry Emrich called the meeting to order and introduced Tony Sabatino. Tony then led us in the salute to our flag, an invocation, and after a patriotic song led by the Songsters (Future CMA Nominees?) introduced visitors and guests. President Larry circulated a get well card for Leo Tauber. John Brant and Steve Doll updated us on the Gold Coast Ride for Literacy. President Emrich informed us that the Placemats Project, suggested by a Committee chaired by Steve Kipp, had yielded $9,000 for the Club during it's first year. President Emrich then announced that the newest program, raising money for our charitable foundation, is the Julius Gius Memorial Fellowship, a $1,000 contribution for the benefit of the JGMF to honor a deserving recipient. A surprised Hoot Bennett was then made the first JGMF Fellow, Steve Kipp and others noting his many contributions to our community and our Club. On May 16, 2010, we are planning a Club picnic at Foster Park. Stay tuned. Jeff King told us that there would be a dinner on May 11, 6:00 to 9:00 p.m., for the benefit of the Chelsea Light Foundation. Scott Patterson reminded us that April 24 was Rotarians at Work Day. Volunteers needed. The fining was a classic, with Sherry Scott quizzing us with football themed questions about local law enforcement related teams. This provided a perfect segue for Ron Calkins to introduce our speaker, Ventura Chief of Police Ken Corney. Ken, a football player and with the VPD since 1986, recently appointed to the top position, explained in detail about the positive impact of the VPD on the City. Chief Corney and Ron Bamieh gave each other a hard time.

Gold Coast Ride for Literacy – Bob Schilken, one of our many volunteers, is pictured.

Julius Gius Memorial Foundation – The deadline for grant applications is April 28. Contact Terry Schaeffer for details. His phone number is 479-0067.

- The Four Way Test - Of the things we think, say and do:
1. Is it the truth?
 2. Is it fair to all concerned?
 3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
 4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
