February 17, 2010 Meeting: After the President rang the meeting to order Eric Baucom led us in the salute to our Flag, an invocation and the introduction of visitors and guests. The patriotic song was led by the harmonic foursome of RoseAnn Hill, Bob Schilken, Jim Spencer and Clyde Reynolds. First on the meeting agenda was the award of a Paul Harris Fellowship to Michele Olsen, pictured. Her Club service includes the vital post of fine master. President Emrich, with vital technical support from John Williams, pictured in laptop concentration, showed us a video about the shelter box relief efforts led by Rotary following the Haiti earthquake disaster. A spontaneous outpouring of additional support from our members raised $2,000 in pledges for two more shelter boxes.

Terry Schaeffer explained more about the March 2, 2010 Read Across America event, where our Club members will read to elementary school students. Volunteers are sought! The Gold Coast Ride for Literacy, one of our major fund raising events, was the topic of John Brant's presentation. Elyn Dembowski fined about the history of the Olympic Games, founded by Hercules, the son of Zeus. After Happy dollars Robin Calote, pictured, the President of Ventura College, gave a compelling presentation about Ventura Promise, a hugely successful program that our Club helped found. The program has earned national recognition, and it's offer of free first year enrollment at VC for any new Ventura County high school graduate has had impressive results. A film underwritten by Ann Deal and Sandra and Jordan Laby illustrated this success.
