January 13, 2010 Meeting: President Larry Emrich called the meeting to order and introduced Clyde Reynolds. Clyde led us in the flag salute, an invocation, songs with coleaders RoseAnn Hill and Jim Spencer, and the introduction of visitors and guests.

President Emrich announced a Fireside Chat on February 11 at the John Williams home. Joyce Frenette needs volunteers for the Dictionary Project. A Public Relations Committee, chaired by Kris Taylor, was to meet after the regular meeting. Mark Sauer, pictured, the Assistant Treasurer of our Club, was presented a Paul Harris Fellow award by Dick Hatcher on behalf of the Club for his dedicated service in many areas including Club financial management. Steve Kipp, pictured, presented a check to Jim Spencer, accepting on behalf of the Salvation Army, which made the funds raised by the Club Bellingring exceed the amount raised last year. Steve then described the placemat fundraising project and encouraged members to take out business card or larger ads. Bruce Reeve reminded us of the blood drive on January 27. Dave Loe gave The Rotarian magazine report. A vintage cover is shown, and a separate article is below. After Happy Dollars conducted by our President, Marc Vertin, former District 5240 Governor, gave an informative and entertaining program on The Rotary Foundation and it's many diverse programs. Marc explained that the Rotary Foundation was the third most recognized charitable foundation in the United States.

The Rotarian Magazine Report: David Loe came forward courageously and reported about a letter to the Editor in the current Rotarian Magazine, penned by the Public Works Director of a prominent surfside Southern California community, describing a "Make Your Own Sandwich Day", instituted by an arbitrary edict from that Club's President. To say the reviews of the event were mixed is a most charitable spin. People at this editor's table described Dave's presentation as "Carsonesque."
