February 24, 2010 Meeting : Cessy Figueroa led us in the salute to our flag, an invocation and introductions. Our foursome of song leaders, Jim Spencer, RoseAnn Hill, Clyde Reynolds and Bob Schilken, led a patriotic song. A representative of the Conejo Valley Rotary told us about a Shakespeare Youth Workshop, followed by a Ventura South Rotarian touting the ever popular Trivia Challenge. President Emrich encouraged us to downshift and gear up for the April 17 Gold Coast Ride for Literacy. Larry then spoke about a membership drive. Our membership had declined recently from 133 to 127, and our members were challenged, (politely), to sponsor and build membership. The Rotary "End Polio Now" educational campaign got a huge local boost from the freeway visible banners now displayed at Mark Sauer's building at Victoria and 101. Joyce Frenette announced free avocados for all in attendance during Happy Dollars, which also raised funds for another shelter box to benefit earthquake victims in Haiti. On June 16 we will be dark on celebration of the demotion of President Larry at the Crown Plaza. Another exceptional Craft Talks program followed, introduced by Roz Warner. Newer member Mary Squire led off, talking about her life, her family, her interests and her new business, River Park Executive Suites. Clyde Reynolds followed with a presentation about his youth, his educational background, and how the Turning Point Foundation was founded. He then focused on a Turning Point project supported with money, organization and volunteer work from our Club, the River Haven U-Dome village. Common threads to both craft talks – Rotary and the Santa Clara River.

New Member Classifications : Here is another snapshot of open classifications in our Club previously filled by distinguished former members:

March Rotarian Magazine: Rotary Stories beginning on page 48 features the tale of Marc Vertin running the border in a dash to deliver a fire engine to Tlapacoyan, Mexico. Read it!
