WINE TASTING COMPETITION

Belair Country Club, Upper Sturt Road, Belair

6.30pm - 8.30pm on Tuesday 1st December, 2015

Cost: $39.00 per head (includes 2 course meal, coffee and wine)

Tony Love, the renowned News Limited wine writer has agreed to address the Blackwood Rotary Club and interested members of the public on 'Wine Appreciation'. As part of his presentation a wine tasting competition will be held. This exciting competition will give everyone the opportunity to try their hand at identifying various aspects of premium selected wines. There is $100's worth of prizes to be won and some rare premium wines will be auctioned. Everyone is welcome. Proceeds from the night will assist the Blackwood Rotary Clubs ongoing commitment to the Indigenous Scholarship award. We guarantee an educational and fun night for all.
